Notable features:

Numbers 868½-870 have brownstone lintels, severe cornices. A canopy over the shop fronts at these addresses appears on Sachse's view. Number 827 has cast iron lintels at the second floor. Number 876 is a dormer-gable style and is the oldest house remaining on the block.

Environmental context:

Lots at 884, 886 and 886½ have been cleared and are fenced as a used car lot. Good row which has been violently modified; the blocked-up windows and across-the-buildings treatment denies the total building forms. Canopy is traditional in 868½-870. Scale could be nice again if the buildings were restored.
